

"To say that Lee Curry has been a good amateur golfer would be a huge understatement."
Flagstick Golf Magazine May, 2003 Profile by Scott MacLeod

Inducted: 2022

Category: Player (Amateur/Professional)

Golf Club Affiliation(s): Riverbend Golf Club, Rideau View Golf Club and Camelot Golf & Country Club

Provincial Championships:

Golf Quebec Junior Match Play (3 times)

Golf Quebec Junior Amateur

Golf Quebec Alexander of Tunis (3 times)

Golf Quebec Amateur

Golf Quebec Duke of Kent Championship (twice)

Local Championships:

1995 OVGA Junior City & District Match Play

1996 OVGA City & District Junior Championship

1998 OVGA City & District Men's "A" Class Championship

Awards:

2001 Golf Quebec Player of the Year

2001, 2002 Ottawa Sports Award winner in the Golfer category

Turning professional in 2003, Lee has carried on from his successful amateur career.

Professional Championships:

2005 Great Lakes Tour win

2005, 2006 Rideau View Invitational Pro-Am wins

2010 Golf Quebec Spring Open win

2015 PGA of Canada, Canada Cup win

PGA of Canada - Ottawa Zone Championship (6 times)

PGA of Canada – Ottawa Zone Assistants' Championship

PGA of Canada – Ottawa Zone Summer Open Championship

PGA of Canada – Ottawa Zone Match Play Championships (3 times)

PGA of Canada – Ottawa Zone Pro-Pro Championships with Bob Flaro and Bill Keating (twice)

Lee is currently the teaching professional at the Camelot Golf & Country Club in the Cumberland Sector of the City of Ottawa.

With all his golf successes and the fame and attention that go with it, Lee Curry has managed to stay grounded and he will be the first to tell you that he is just Lee Curry - from Richmond, Ontario.